Liability Notice:

1. Content of the web site

The author does not assume any liability for ensuring that the information which is provided is up to date, correct, complete or of good quality. Liability claims against the author referring to material or non-material damages caused by using or failing to use the provided information or by using incorrect and incomplete information are excluded unless the author can be proved to have acted with intent or gross negligence. All offers are non-binding and subject to change without notice. The author expressly reserves the right to change, add to or delete the website or parts thereof without notice or to discontinue publication temporarily or permanently.

2. References and links

In the case of direct or indirect references to third party websites (?hyperlinks?) which are not the responsibility of the author, liability shall only apply in the event that the author was aware of the contents and had the technical means and could reasonably be expected to prevent unlawful contents being used. The author hereby expressly declares that at the time the link was set up no illegal contents were apparent on the relevant sites to which a link is made. The author has no influence on the current and future form, contents and copyright of the sites to which a link is made. He therefore expressly distances himself from all contents on all linked sites which were altered after the link was created. This shall apply to all links and references made within the author's own website as well as to entries made by third parties in guestbooks, discussion forums and mailing lists set up by the author and in all other forms of databases where external write access is allowed. The provider of the page which is referred to shall be solely liable for illegal, incorrect or incomplete contents and in particular for damage arising from using or failing to use information of this nature, and not the party which merely refers to the publication in question via links.

3. Copyright and trademarks

The author shall take all reasonable efforts to comply with the copyrights for images, graphics, audio documents, video sequences and texts used in all publications, to use images, graphics, audio documents, video sequences and texts created by the author himself or to use graphics, audio documents, video sequences and texts which are freely available without a licence. All brand logos and trademarks which are given on the website and which may be protected by third parties are subject without exclusion to the provisions of the relevant trademark laws and the rights of possession held by the respective registered owners. The conclusion should not be drawn that a trademark is not protected by third party rights from the use of its name alone! The copyright for published objects created by the author itself shall solely remain with the author of the pages. Such graphics, audio documents, video sequences and texts may not be reproduced or used in other electronic or print publications without first obtaining the explicit permission of the author.

4. Privacy Policy

If the website offers the possibility of entering personal or business data (e-mail addresses, names, addresses), the User shall reveal such data on an explicitly voluntary basis. All offered services can be used and paid for - as far as technically possible and reasonable - without entering such data or by entering anonymous data or a pseudonym. The contact data such as postal addresses, telephone and fax numbers and email addresses published within the context of this legal notice or comparable information may not be used by third parties for sending information which has not explicitly been requested. The right to take legal steps against senders of so-called spam mails in the event of a breach against this prohibition are expressly reserved.

5. Legal effectiveness of this exclusion of liability

This exclusion of liability is to be seen as part of the internet site from which the link to this page was made. If parts or individual wording of this text do not conform with the valid legal situation, have ceased to conform with the valid legal situation or do not conform completely with the valid legal situation, this shall not affect the contents or validity of the other parts of the document.
